Goals for 2018 Symposium

• Smooth transition
  • Maintain the character of the symposium
  • Stabilize organizing efforts at the new venue to maintain the high standard of S&P operations
  • Pave the way for future S&P events

• Broaden participation: all of the symposium’s paper presentations will be video-recorded and will be publicly posted online

• Continue supporting speed mentoring

• Continue to leverage paid, professional support – this is critical
Overall Successes for 2018 – 1

• Tried the continuous paper submission, review, and publishing model
• 63 papers accepted, record number; reaching single-track limit
• Registration (as of May 22)
  • Number of symposium attendees: 592 (record)
  • Workshop-only attendees: 105 (record)
  • Total attendees: 697 (record)
• Code of conduct – initial version on line
• Continued speed mentoring and presentations on YouTube
Overall Successes for 2018 – 2
